

RESOLUTION NO. 74927

A RESOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN JOSE SUPPORTING ADMINISTRATION ACTIVITIES NECESSARY TO COORDINATE THE PLANNING AND HOSTING OF THE 2009 LEAGUE OF CALIFORNIA CITIES ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, in 2006, the League of California Cities (“LOCC”) Board of Directors awarded the proposal to host the LOCC Annual Conference and Expo, to be held on September 16-18, 2009, to the City of San José (“City”); and

WHEREAS, hosting the LOCC 2009 Annual Conference will have substantial economic benefits for the City’s hospitality and tourism industry, infusing approximately $1.9 million into the local economy; and

WHEREAS, the City’s primary role is to produce and fund the Host City reception, which will be held on the first day of the Conference after the Opening General Session, and will take place at The Tech Museum of Innovation, with an expected attendance of 1,200 to 1,500 guests; and

WHEREAS, ongoing staff involvement will include coordination for the Host City Reception and fundraising efforts by City Manager staff and Team San José staff, with LOCC staff serving as resources; and

WHEREAS, as the conference approaches, City staff will provide as-needed support to ensure a successful event, including a liaison and coordination among conference participants, sponsors, volunteers, and key organizers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN JOSE THAT:

Support for Administration activities necessary to coordinate the planning and hosting of the 2009 League of California Cities Annual Conference is hereby approved.
